I wouldn't do it any other way, I would still move into the city, and find out once again, that my time there was up and move on.

Do you ever stop and think about how crazy life is? How much time we spend pondering our daily crisis's which really have no bearing or meaning on anything. Sometimes, life itself seems so absurd. And then again sometimes it feels so pointless. Pointless in that, it's all been said and done before. I can't get over this feeling that we're about due for some big change. I was reading an article about different generations of rebels and hipness, and it's funny cause all we're doing is rehashing times past, and not getting anywhere new. So I guess the 'new' is coming. Maybe we're to frightened of the new and unfamiliar. I can only think about a science fiction world.

Since we seem to be rehashing now the late 70's arena rock thing, maybe a new outburst of small underground something or other is coming, (and long over due). I mean, the so called underground is not underground. It has become mainstream. To be alternative has become hip, (maybe it's always been) and therefore the alternative is lost. I mean really, what difference does it make if something is considered underground or not, but when a so called underground or alternative thing becomes all the rage - then half of the point is lost. I think that just about the time where something is recognized as being an underground or alternative, then that is when the novelty is lost and people jump on the bandwagon. Of course I guess the idea is to think about what it is that we're trying to accomplish or work towards within an alternative community.

I was thinking of the recently past New Music Seminar. Boy, I'll tell ya if I ever had a doubt, I know for sure now that I do not want to have anything to do with the "music industry". For some reason this year, it made a strong impact on me. Maybe the brochure I read several months ago, where something was mentioned about a workshop on how to market to fanzines. I mean here was a semi-major, once small semi punk/HC label holding 'press conference' workshops on how to market music to fanzines. What's happening? No wonder the so called scene has been invaded. They've finally caught on, and now they've realized that there is money to be made in punk and they're now scouting out for the next new big thing, (like Nirvana) I find the whole thing, disgusting! All the bullshit and ass kissing that goes on, it really just makes my belief in punk ideals all the more stronger. And yet my faith in the whole punk thing isn't at it's strongest, cause like any other clique - there is enough bullshit and ass kissing and shit to go around. And what does it say on. Easier said than done. And I suppose more important is try to think about the present, and work out the present, rather than dwelling on the past and trying to predict the future.

I read an article about how 'our' children, even our generation, are losing touch with the environment. Because where we were once encouraged to play outside and be creative, and are parents were even more so... today's children are exposed to Nintendo and computers and soon to come this virtual reality thing. And there is not a push for them to get out and play in the dirt and make up games. I recently got a visit from an old childhood friend, and I got to thinking about my childhood and all the games that we used to make up. We always had a project of some sort going. Half of them were designed to avoid going to the swimming pool, which I always wanted to do, to combat the heat. She hated the pool and made up games instead. We did everything from designing houses, on paper and with wood to making our own magazine, which mostly had copies word puzzles and jokes, taken out of our books. Oh, if only we had known about xeroxing then. We hand did each one and sold them for 5 cents (ah, the beginnings of a fanzine editor). Anyway, when I think of all the great things that we used to do, with no elaborate toys.... I realize now what an effect all of these games and projects had on me.... My friend really taught me to be creative (she was a few years older) and I can still feel the effects of that now. It's great. The thought of having all childhood creativity eliminated is sad. And while the creativity I'm talking about is not necessarily related to the outdoors and lack thereof, when I think of playing outside, as I did a lot, and how today's children seem to not be pushed in that direction, whether it's out of the effects of tv and computers or fancy elaborate toys which take all the creativity and imagination away (baby dolls that do everything) well it's an interesting thing to think about.

One of the most exciting things I've come across was a brochure for these alternative communities, basically these commune places. I read through it and it was one of the best sounding things and most appealing things that I have read in awhile. I have my doubts on that as well, but it did sound good. I wonder. My hippy insides are starting to surface.

I've been thinking about how technology is overtaking the world: Computers are taking over daily things in our lives. So on one hand I think, it's terrific that man labor and skills are being eliminated and replaced by computer. But then, on the other hand, think of it this way: if computers can do math (and other things) then why do we need to learn it on our own? Well true - why waste our time on something we don't need to. Then you can take that to such an extreme that if computers can do everything generation, when automobiles and tv's and such first came about... and then their reaction and adaptation to microwaves... well I'm sure they felt much the same way... as in how hopeless life is now that technology is taking over the world. But, has it changed? We keep getting further along, but we're still here, and we still recognize the need to have personal skills and not let computers replace people. But is that where we are headed? Will things continue in such a way until they do take over? Or will we prevent it? Technology advances at such a rate that it is important for us to keep up with it. If we don't, then we will be "redundant", and replaced, by computers, and someone who knows how to operate them will end up with the available job. The key is to keep on top of it and know how to use it (whatever technology we're talking about). But, then how can we know when to keep up, since stuff is continually replaced and what is out now on the market is already obsolete. So how do we know what to keep up with and when to "upgrade". It's frustrating. Who wants to invest the incredible amount of money on something which will be replaced soon anyway. (they say that CD's will be replaced also, and so do we all really want to invest in CD's now, when the next thing could come in only a few years?

Our society is made in such a way that you have to keep up. And they try to force you to, purely to make money and capitalize on products and new items. Corporations already know what that things will be replaced, but they don't let us know, cause they want our money. So we are all being played for fools really. Yet how can we not cooperate? We could say, what is the point of continuing? But that is a ridiculous thought, cause the negative attitude of "humans are doomed" will get us nowhere. We just have to be aware of it all and keep up with it to a degree. It certainly is not groundbreaking, the 50's each generation has done it before. I guess that is why the 50's was such a Sci Fi era, cause of the developing technology. So now it is going crazy again. Again no solution, as usual. Ideas to think about. It all seems somewhat pointless then to agonize over, cause whatever happens will take place with such adaptability in a slow process that we incorporate it and accept it without really thinking. These changes don't take place over night, therefore we see each step as advantageous.

So since it's all been said and done before where does that leave us? Again, there is no answer, it is just something to think about. I tend to believe that just being aware of things leaves us that much

SOME THOUGHTS

I suppose the first thing to mention is my solution to the living in the city dilemma and my new home in Jersey City. I had mentioned last month that I was considering moving - well the move is complete - and I must say it's one of the best thing that I have ever done! I have a wonderful backyard and garden, which at this point in time is a bit of a lifesaver! I had this idea that I would spend a month at my new place, and not go out, hoping to then get recuperated and be able to enjoy 'going out' once again. I can't say that it has worked, cause it still seems that I am always 'out' somewhere, but it has been much better! I feel like a new person!! The luxury of being able to do laundry in your living room!! - and roll out of bed into a garden. Simple pleasures in life. Except that something seems to be eating and destroying all of my plants. And it's not the dog. My flower seeds barely got out of the ground and have now died away, never even germinating as they were meant to and those that did grow up a few inches are now starting to shrivel up. I'm a bit confused on this, and pretty disappointed. I don't expect that I'll ever get any tomatoes out of my plants, and if I do timewise it wouldn't be until December. Oh well - It's fun anyway.

The funny thing is I don't miss the city at all. I thought I would, and while I do hate the walk across the city to the train at night, I don't miss

I wouldn't do it any other way. I would still move into the city, and find out once again, that my time there was up and move on.

Do you ever stop and think about how crazy life is? How much time we spend pondering our daily crisis's which really have no bearing or meaning on anything. Sometimes, life itself seems so absurd. And yet my faith in the whole punk thing isn't at it's strongest, cause like any other clique - there is enough bullshit and ass kissing and shit to go around. And what does it say when 'punk' is being marketed in such a way? So much time is wasted on petty bullshit.

I certainly don't want to get into any debate of punk or unpunk. Although I did recently witness something, which got me to thinking. It is funny how things have become so safe with in the scene. Safe in that there are the expected guidelines for which one is to follow, in order to be cool (whatever your definition of cool is). Bands to listen to, clothes to wear (punks guidelines are no different than mainstream ones, only of a different sort). What I was getting at was things have become safe, and it seems that individualness is lost. When you do have a person, or band, or group or whatever who do something a little different, it's funny how everyone points fingers and criticizes. What happened to being yourself, an individual? Why must people spend so much time pointing fingers and arguing over petty things, why not just let people do their thing, rather than pushing everyone to conform to whatever style or ideals you have.

Here again, this is no new argument. However this is something that I have been thinking about, and witnessing with disgust around me. Sometimes I wish I could just run off into the woods and live in a cave. But then I'd miss all the humans that I hate so much. Why is it that we who are social animals and depend on other people, seem to detest people at the same time. I think there is a problem with us, that we have no respect for each other. We have no respect for living amongst each other, because we have all been brought up to be so selfish and independent, to the point where other people are an interference to our personal agenda. Maybe we need to readjust this.

Well I guess that there is some realization of this, around us and I've been reading about a lot of people who are getting back to a community lifestyle and going back to the land, which seems realistic to me. I think that communities are important. It's funny to me, that here again I find the idea of a small town so much more appealing in so many ways. (I never thought I would be think that)

Sometimes I wonder though, why bother with this all, why bother thinking and analyzing these things, when it has all been done before, and if you look back on recent history, you can see that things have been tried before, - and are we really any better off? Then again, how could we not think? I mean if we stopped thinking over things, then we really

This time around as I was looking for recycling tips, it seems much harder to find any information. I find it hard to believe, because I don't know everything nor have I encountered all information available. But so much of it seems to be common sense, and repetitive from the basics, which I have mentioned several times.

I would like to continue this section, but I will have to come across some more information. In the mean time, I did come across a few things more on the environmental side

Relating to Summer:

Charcoal Lighter Fluids: have toxins in them and produce carbon monoxide. Food cooked over fluid started fires and the fumes from them are dangerous. Alternatives: Small chimney starters are fast and efficient. Charcoal can be started using straw and / or wood prior to adding charcoal.

Flea and Tick treatment: Commercial pesticides have dangerous carcinogens which can be bad for the pet as well as children and adults. Alternatives: 1) Add brewers yeast to pets food, starting w/ less than a teaspoon and increasing daily. 2) Safe pet dips are available, made from citrus extracts. 3) Pyrethrin powder made from chrysanthemums sprinked on carpets and then vacuumed will prevent further infestation. 4) House sprays and collars made from organic materials are available through health food stores 5) Biodegradable non-toxic insecticidal soaps are available through garden supply companies.

Environmental Safety Tips

Buy produce in season, especially from your local region. It makes a lot more sense to buy veggies that are grown in your state than the Import the same thing from another. Not only are you paying for the shipping and transportation and other unnecessary waste- but your local farmers need the support and it helps in self sustainability

Enviromentally Safe Alternatives:

Rug & Upholstery cleaners: Rentable cleaners often have dry cleaning agents. Alternative: sprinkle cornstarch and sbaking soda on rugs and furniture. Let sit, then vaccum.

Coffee Cup Stains: Moist salt.
 Coffee pot Stains: Vinegar
 Grease Removal: Borax and damp cloth.
 Pet Odor Remover - Vinegar
 Roach Repellent - Chopped bay leaves, cucumber skins or boric acid

Art Supplies - Hazards and Options:

There is a book "Artists Beware" which gives info on protection methods to reduce risks associated with various art supplies. If you work with a lot of artist materials, it could be worthwhile to look into this book to learn more about what materials your dealing with, and precautions you should take.

These supplies are all safe, and should be chosen over any chemical products:

white glue, library paste, wheat paste
 water based markers wax crayons and dustless chalk liquid water based paints

 any water based products
For Cleaner Drinking Water:

Do not use pesticides or toxic chemicals on lawn and gardens because run off will pollute water supplies.
 Do not dump toxic chemicals down drains (including commercial drain cleaners).

NonToxic Enviromentally Safe Cleaning: With these few items, you can do all your cleaning, naturally and safely with out any chemicals.

Flake soap/ Bar soap (Ivory)
 Washing/ Baking soda (Arm and Hammer)
 Borax
 Vinegar
 Salt

Butt Ugly #7 ($1ppd to: 1461 S. West Ave. Apt #8/ Waukesha WI 53186) Butt Ugly is a consistently good zine, which I think gets overlooked. This issue has a lengthy interview w/ Kent McClard, and a section of Cory's diary. Also columns and reviews, and contacts which could put you in touch with some good people. Check this out, if you're not familiar with it.

Take Back Your Life ($1 ppd to POB 8722/ MPLS MN 55408) This is a great collection of Alicia's articles on alternatives in women's health care, which have all formerly appeared in Profane Existence. It's really excellent to have them all together in 1 booklet. Each article is extremely well researched and well written, providing a good source for information, covering self help, midwives & herbalists as well as birth control, abortion, pregnancy, nutritional needs, menstrual problems and other complaints of wimmin. This is a great source and something every woman, and men for that matter should read and at least think about.

Vomit Blood #2 (1 stamp to POB 684/ Mankata MN 56002-0684) This is a really great little collection of angry writings and thoughts by Michael, it reads and flows well, as if it's a letter, where he tells of the complexities of raising a child in our society, and how to continue to uphold his beliefs with in it. Also rants and fuck offs to child abusers and sexual abusers as well as support for DIY bands and ethics. Honest and down to earth feelings that are just real! Necrovol.2 ($2ppd to 1648 Hazelhurst/ Ferndale MI 48220) Sixty pages of righteous contents in Gothic vein. Lists of vampire (info) contacts. Cool book and film reviews, poetry and short stories that hold my attention for once. Also interview with Eleventh Hour, with Ron Hexe form The Freeze. Check it out. (review by Robin)

Media Blitz #2 ($2ppd to POB 20420/ NY NY 10011) Really great intv. w/ Art Fux (a group of artists fighting censorship, and other radical activities), plus articles on authoritarian policies of schools, Watts Riots & '92 LA riots, vivisection and animal experimentation. Plus book, zine, performance and film reviews. This is a really excellent - intelligent and well done zine, with some great ideas, well expressed!

No Sanctuary #7 (May) ($2ppd to POB 426/ 8026 Zurich Switzerland) Yet another good issue of punk protest, focusing mainly on news and reviews, which offer a really excellent number of DIY contacts. Also a few opinions and a tale of jury duty in London.. If you're not already familiar with these this, I recommend checking this out. They also have a good distribution and label so they're worth writing to and finding out more about!

Another Pair of Shoes ($1 POB 300031/ Mpls MN 55408) A bunch of definitions and explanation on fallacies in arguments (as applied to politicians and the upcoming election), also related presidential politics. Intv. w/ Naked Agression, Heroin and a load of reviews.

Abolition of Work ($1 Feh! Press 2226 Hennepin Ave/ Mpls MN 55405) This booklet is an essay by Bob Black on the benefits of unemployment and well, abolishing all work, which causes all the problems and ills of society. Interesting ideas!

No Ones Home II final issue (RPO Box 0821/ New Brunswick NJ 08903) This is a strange little joke of a bunch of phone calls to various NY scenesters. I imagine it wouldn't make sense to alot of people (outside NY), it barely does to me, But this is an entertaining result of an afternoon of entertaining phone calls.

Itchin' For Ink ($2.50 (US) PO Box 50682/ Mpls. MN 55405) "The Tattoo Guide" to the "underground". This is similar to most tattoo magazines, except that it has a much more underground feel to it, which is cool. Info on While Tiger Tattoo Studio (FL), Sea of Blue Tatoo convention (WI), Wylde Tattoo (Tor), Crawling Squid Studio (AZ), History of Scythia (nomadic ancient Russia) tattooing, by Felix, Body modification, the "Rite of Passage" of getting a tattoo.. as well as a tattoo directory, personal profiles and lots of photos!

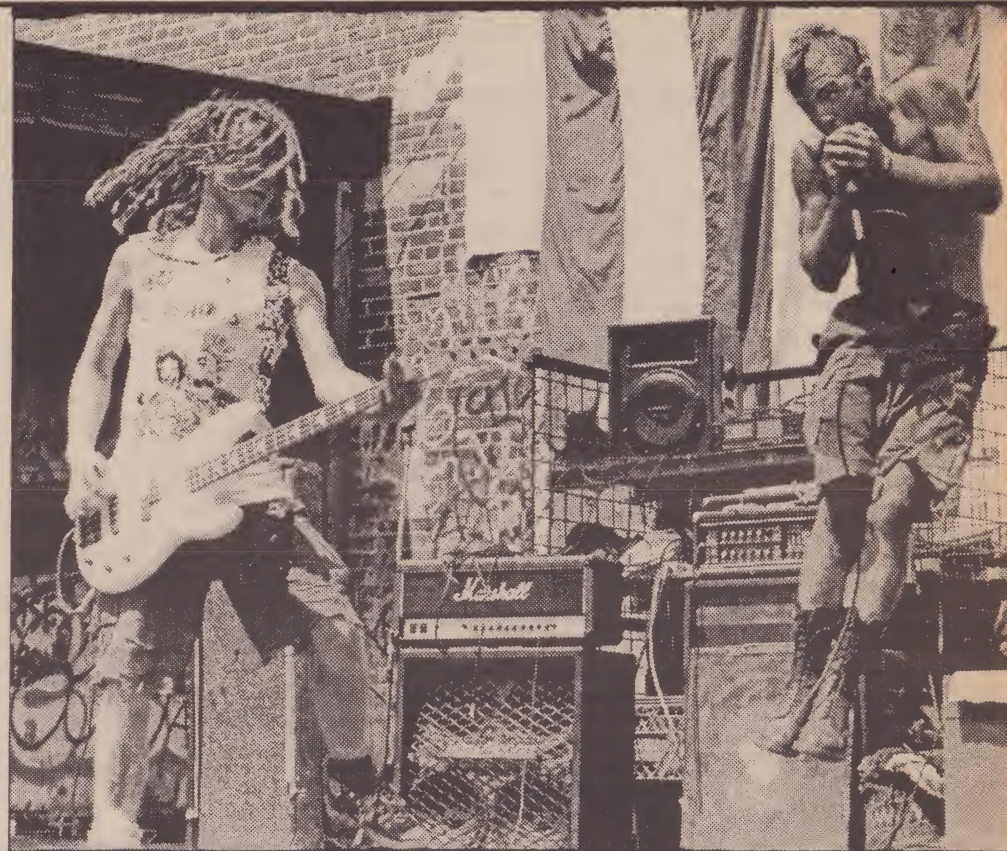

Radio Riot #12 (June) (Free to c/o WRSU 126 College Ave/ New Brunswick NJ 08903) This is the one year anniversary issue, which means it's much bigger. As usual it's a fun and enjoyable read of the dirt and gossip of the local scene. Highlights are the reviews of Brendan & Moon's wedding and the acknowledgment of apathy killing ABC and "the scene". Fun lighthearted and enjoyable:

Vietnam Never Happened #2 (Feb) (Lothrop Hall rm 356/ 190 Lothrop Hall/ Pittsburgh PA 15213) This is a Pittsburgh thing - which wastes alot of paper by coping on 1 side, but there is a 14 page interview w/ my pals Necracedia (who recently broke up). Anyway, it's a bundle of laughs.

Party Fears #18 (autumn '92) ($3ppd to David Gerard P.F. POB 89/ Northbridge 6865/ W. Australia). This Australian zine covers news around Perth, Intv. w/ David McComb, Lurid, Summer Sons, Third Eye, The Rainyard. Live show reviews, record & zines all of stuff I've never heard of before.

Green Anarchist (winter '91 $2 box H/ 34 Cowley Rd/ Oxford Eng.) There is a heavy political Eco- anarchist Green party publication, covering news around the world, though this is a bit old. Also technocracy tyranny, autonomous struggles, eco-facism, German squatting, Benjamin Tucker - classic anarchist, Green Party conference. Overall reads heavy like propaganda, but still informative and a good read.

Ship of Fools ($50 POB 2062/ Westminster MD 21156) This is the first issue of this collection of politically oriented news articles, mostly take and reprinted form an assortment of publications. Large article on the Peoples Park in Berkeley and touch on various other topics. L.A.S.D. Book burning

2.5 Children Inc. at the Crucial Barbeque/ Bklyn 7/5/92

Chumppire Zine #7 (2 stamps to Greg Rd. 2 Box 530/ Coopersbug PA 18036) This small zine's got reviews and a short intv. w/ Face to Face and some various stuff slapped together. Crumpire Zine (2 stamps to Greg RD2 Box 530/ Coopersburgh PA 18036) In these few pages are intv. w/ sledgehammer, 10 Feet Tall, plus reviews (shows, & music) photos, and any other info that can be packed in.

Shoelace #2 ($2ppd to POB 7952/ Trenton NJ 08628) From the remains of (This Zine Sucks and Stranger) is the 2nd issue of this combined effort. Intv. w/ Shudder to Think and Loose. Lots of reviews, but the best part here are the columns from Bob, Erik and a few others. For me they're way more interesting than the music, but then our music tastes are not so in sink. I'm glad to see they're still doing zines!!

So What #1 (Donation to 815 Chelsea / Cornwall Ont. K6H 6Y8, Canada) This is a really good first issue - dealing mostly w/ ideas and opinions of political punk such as Media propaganda, political prisoner, high school sucks, censorship, Ottawa scene report, abortion and more. Though it may not be anything new - I think it's down well and sincerely and that itself is great to see. It's also free, so definitely write and send a donation for postage.

Book Your Own Fucking Life ($2ppd to PE POB 8722/ Mpls Mn 55408) The "Do it Yourself Resource Guide". Brought to us by PE and MRR, this is an excellent directory and Anarchy #18 Mar/Ap ($6 Sub. 6 issues c/o CAL POB 1446/ Columbia MO 65205-1446) This is a big newspaper publication focusing on (obviously) anarchy, anarchistic communities, and news of gatherings and the like. Tons to read here - columns letters, and articles - critical thory, anarchy and religion, biocentrism. This is a good publication, which is well put together and has good contacts as well.

Bayou La Rose #37 ($3 POB 5464/ Tacoma WA 98405-0464) This is a huge newspaper which provides mostly an excellent assortment of contacts to various groups, organizations etc w/ in the anarchist community, in the form mostly of short info articles. This issue also has a focus on the 1992 anti-celebration as well as a ton of other articles (47 pages total, tabloid size, which is a lot of info.)

Wind Chill Factor #5 & #6 (Free PO Box 91961/ Chicago IL 60681) I haven't even been able to finish reading these 2 different issues, cause there is so much here. Mostly focusing on anarchist political punk in the Chicago area (both issues are big, aprox 50 pages). Let me jsut say there is a ton of info here! A lot of good contacts, tactics, DIY punk, squatting, abortion demo coverage, ALF, Amnesty Intl. and so much more that you'll have to just check these out! I think it looks like a promising collective and zine coming along here.

House of Pain #7 (Feb.) (POB 120861/ Nashville TN 37212)

Book Your Own Fucking Life ($2ppd to PE POB 8722/ Mpls Mn 55408) The "Do it Yourself Resource Guide". Brought to us by PE and MRR, this is an excellent directory and resource of worldwide contacts - of bands, labels, distributors, radio, zines and other misc. info which all serve an excellent forum for finding out just about anything you could want to know w/in the DIY punk/ HC etc. scene. Excellent source of info!!!

Suburban Wasteland #2 (free postage or trade to Jon 2161 bunker Hill Dr./ San Mateo CA 94402) Intv. w/ Shonen Knife (Japan), Public Bath Records and lots of reviews, all really focusing on Japanese music.

No Trend Press #7 (Boris Kadlicek/ Lenastr 1/ 6906 Leimens/ Bezirksparkasse Heidelberg) Slick big German music mag, w/ everything from Living Color, Megadeath, SST, Big Chief, 24-7 Spyz Alice Donut, Antiseen, GG Allin and reviews. This is one of these "alternative underground" mags. that looks big and in this genre has a lot of stuff in German.

Chelsea Chronicle (Musik for Wien/ Diaristengasse 1/ 1080 Wien) Another slick glossy music mag w/ Sister of Mercy, No Fish on Friday, Grateful Dead in Europe and British football(!?) Reviews and more I've never heard of, and an not to interested in.

Gingivitis - Freak Antizine #2 ($1 431 W. Johnson #1/ Madison WI 53703) Mostly a visual collection of various "freaky photos" - deformities, and other circumstances, with text and a few stories. All proceeds go to anti-racist action.

Creative Insanity #1 ($3ppd 10277 N 32nd St./ Phoenix AZ 85051) This is a good zine which is emphasizing creativity - good columns and art and poet section plus intv. w/ Peaceville, Pitchshifter, Autopsy, Nuclear Death, Accused, Generiks and reviews.

Gothic #4 ($1.50 ppd to POB 892/ Browns Mills NJ 08015) One of my favorite punk zine - Monica has a lot of good reviews here that go a step beyond the usual boring shit. Intv. w/ Social Outcast, AWOL, Demise, consolidated, Black Tape for a Blue Girl.. As well as some commentary from her and a load of reviews. It looks as though this could be the last

House of Pain #7 (Feb.) (POB 120861/ Nashville TN 37212) A big old hardcore fanzine focusing on the music w/ intv. w/ Rollins, Uk Subs, Firehose, Trusty, Fixtures, The Lolapalooza festival and the Nashville scene. It's always nice to see one of this sort, focusing on bands and doing a good job of keeping it together.

No Longer Silent #4/5 ($3 to Eliza Blackweb POB 3582/ Tucson AZ 85722) This is an excellent anarchist publication w/ some really well written articles - anarchist seperatism, women in the sex industry (great!), revolutionary self theory, book reviews and more. The printing on this is also excellent w/ multi color illustrations. Done in the vein of "The Match", this is a really great thing, that moves beyond the usual fanzine. These thought provoking articles can be read over and over as I intend to do, to get the most out of this. This is excellent! Well worth the $3!!!

Pinchpoint #2 (to Chuck POB 69/ New Boston MI 48164-0069) This is a pretty good issue, w/ a lot ot read. An intv. w/ God Bullies, a lot of responses written on things from G. Bush public addresses to discovering feminism, plus some stories, poetry, and well it seems as though Michigan is getting a scene together, and this is one of the results.

Emotional Anarchy #3 (2 stamps to Jerry Nelson/ 121 Kerney Ln/ Lockport IL 60447-9132) This is a poetry/ art zine. Now I'm not into poetry (at all) so I really can not judge it. However there is a bunch of it here, as well as some short fictional type stories, and drawings.

Zips & Chains #8 ($3 ppd to Dario Adamic Via Arrigo Boito 78/D, 00052 Valcanne 70 Cerveteri Italy) This is an excellent punk zine, with a bunch of good interviews - Nation of Bigots (RIP), Raw Power, Agent 86, Foreign Legion, the Beggars, Rhythm Collison and more. Also a load of reviews and a few misc. opinions, that all make this good. Yes, the usual zine contents - but done well and of particular interest to me!

Intv. w/ Social Outcast, AWOL, Demise, consolidated, Black Tape for a Blue Girl, . As well as some commentary from her and a load of reviews. It looks as though this could be the last issue of another great zine.

DystOpinion #2 (POB 45622/ Seattle WA 98145). This is a one pager w/ a various assortment of info and tid-bits.

Dog Will Hunt (stamp to Jerry Nelson 121 Kerry Lane/ Lockport IL 60441-9132) This is a small handwritten skate zine w/ skate scene reports from Florida and Chicago, as well as photos.

Meat #1 (POB 3458/ Berkeley Ca 94703) This is a small collection of gnarly visual of the freakish nature - and basically various parts of the bodies - semi weirded out.

Excedra #3 ($2ppd to Kim Carlyle / POB 422937/ SF CA 94142-2937) This is an excellent well done intelligent zine - focusing on the emotional, social and political end of the "scene". While done by 2 females, they do not want it to be limited to a "woman issues" zine. Though there are articles and opinions expressed on rape, revolution, abortion, individuality an intv/ w/ several woman on their viewpoints on involvement in hardcore, and Karen from Spitboy. All said and done this is one that held my interest from cover to cover w/ good articles and a touch of poetry/ fiction / art. Which proves to be a successful combo here.

2 different issues, cause there is so much here. Mostly focusing on anarchist political punk in the Chicago area (both issues are big, aprox 50 pages). Let me jsut say there is a ton of info here! A lot of good contacts, tactics, DIY punk, squatting, abortion demo coverage, ALF, Amnesty Intl. and so much more that you'll have to just check these out! I think it looks like a promising collective and zine coming along here.

House of Pain #7 (Feb.) (POB 120861/ Nashville TN 37212) A big old hardcore fanzine focusing on the music w/ intv. w/ Rollins, Uk Subs, Firehose, Trusty, Fixtures, The Lolapalooza festival and the Nashville scene. It's always nice to see one of this sort, focusing on bands and doing a good job of keeping it together.

No Longer Silent #4/5 ($3 to Eliza Blackweb POB 3582/ Tucson AZ 85722) This is an excellent anarchist publication w/ some really well written articles - anarchist seperatism, women in the sex industry (great!), revolutionary self theory, book reviews and more. Also a load of reviews and a few misc. opinions, that all make this good. Yes, the usual zine contents - but done well and of particular interest to me!

DUE TO THE INCREDIBLE AMOUNT OF FANZINES I HAVE BEEN RECEIVING, I AM A BIT SWAMPED AND OVERWEALMED. I AM PHYSICALLY AND MENTALLY UNABLE TO READ ALL OF THESE.

I EITHER NEED TO FIND SOMEONE (PREFERABLY IN THE AREA) THAT IS INTERESTED IN HELPING ME WITH THE REVIEWS, OR I WILL NEED TO FIGURE OUT A NEW AND FAIR WAY TO HANDLE THIS. IF ANYONE HAS ANY SUGGESTIONS PLEASE SHARE THEM WITH ME.

I HAD CONSIDERED HAVING PEOPLE WRITE UP A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THEIR OWN ZINES FOR ME TO LIST, RATHER THAN SENDING ONE FOR REVIEW. THEN I COULD FOCUS ON LESS REVIEWS, BUT LONGER AND MORE IN DEPTH ONES (AND EVERYONE COULD SAVE SOME POSTAGE)

SO, LET ME KNOW WHAT YOU THINK... IN THE MEAN TIME, FOR FUTURE ISSUES, I'LL TRY A COMBINATION OF THESE. IF ANYONE WANTS TO HELP, PLEASE GET IN TOUCH WITH ME. AND IF SPACE AND TIME DOES NOT PERMIT ME TO REVIEW EVERYTHING, THEN SO BE IT. I AM STILL INTERESTED IN SEEING AND KNOWING ABOUT OTHER PUBLICATIONS, BUT I CAN NOT GUARENTEE A PRINTED REVIEW.

FANZINE REVIEWS

Flem #2 ($1 POB 193/ S. Milw. WI 53172) This is a good little old punk rock zine. Intv. w/ Plaid Retinia & Downcast. As well as loads of a variety of punky shit - from local news, the inevitable selling out and how to kill hippies and a fuck off to disco punks. All along I think this one is fun to read. Fanzine Zine #1 (John Thomatos/ Farron 5-7/ Oalatsi 11147/ Athens Greece) Greek political punk. The usual argument and info against Mc Donalds, reviews. Intv w/ Deus ex Machina. Also non cruelty eating and living. I've read this sort of info before, but for those who haven't, it's always good info.

Einseitig #5 (c/o Ralf Titemann/ Boelkareg 36/ 4400 Munster Germany) Intv. w/ Kina from Italy, and Fierce. A tale of vivisection and animal liberation. Some comics and more stories and what not.

Dam Zine #3 ($1ppd to 8647 Cox Rd. Indianapolis IN 46241) This is a full on skate zine, w/ lots of photos, a skater intv. some other zine listings and more skate stuff.

Wilks 6 (Edgars Embers/ Miceneiku 28A-32/ 229500 Kuldiga Latvia) A fold out zine from Latvia, in their language. I guess if your'e interested in learning more about this counrny and it's scene, write to them!

Apexzine (June) (to Joseph M Willard #55954/ AZ state prison - Tucson/ Echo Unit Box 167/ 10,000 s. Wilmot Rd./ Tucson AZ 85777-0007) Well this is from inside prison, which is interesting, but there is nothing to it. An illustration, a horoscope, a few poems. I guess this could develop, I think it'd be most interesting to hear about being in the prison.

Adventures of Renaldo Gilvera #1 ($1.50 ppd to Karen Wood/ POB 756/ Big Bear Lake CA 92315) This is a full on B&W comic book about this guys adventuers of looking for his lost socks.

Stompie (14 Hill Croft Ln/ Cherry Hill NJ 08034) This is thrown together chaotically w/ a few writings (religion, masterbation) and misc. tid - bits.

Jersey Beat #46 ($2 418 Gregory Ave./ Weehawken NJ 07087) The 10th anniversary issue here reflects on the past 10 years and as usual packs a load of reviews and intv., photos etc focusing on the NY and NJ "alternative" music scene. Intv. w/ L7, Sweet Lizard Illtet, Noise Culture, Firehose, Trusty, & False Prophets. Consistantly well done.

Women Oughta Know (POB 161-775/ Cupertino CA 95016) This is a little booklet w/ news on events, info and various other other issues related to women's situations. Basicly provides a contact/ info source. Write for a sample and or more info (send some stamps)

Raw Idea #3 (Free w/ SASE or trade to Nicolas P. 435 W. Delavan/ Buffalo NY 14213) Some what thrown together here is an assortment of stuff - comments on tv and business' to boycott. Also comes w/ a bunch of flyers added in. A bit chaotic, but some good ideas.

Flower #5 ($1 302 Laurie Ct/ Stillwater MN 55082) This is an all poetry zine, with a lot of poems in it. If you dig poetry, then this would be good. If you don't (like me) then you're out of luck.

Almost Nothing But Record and Tape Reviews (Jan) ($3 POB 137/ Price St. Stn./ NY NY 10012) From Mykel Board here's an all review fanzine, with really long, in depth reviews of videos, records and tapes. I have never heard of any of this stuff, though the emphasis is in suport of independent music. Also a few letters MRR wouldn't print

The Fire Fly #16 (Sp. '92) ($5 6 mo. sub. to POB 1077/ Mission SD 57555) This issues focus in on AIDS, particularly as it effects native indians on their reservation. This covers AIDS form the native viewpoint, AIDS resources team, general info on AIDS and "our" children w/ AIDS.

Apapa Freer #1 (C/o Pat Underhill POB 759/ Veneta OR 97487) This is a very interesting new publication, dealing entirely w/ freedom and how to maximize our own. Includes listings of some "free" places, as written by participants. This is also broken down into essay type explanations and info on how to live simply and cheaply and free and generally take control of your own life and the freedom surrounding it. This is a very intersting new discovery! If you're interested in participating or for more info the the avaiable anthologies write...

Heap #1 ($1.25 POB 4402 Stn E/ Ottawa Ont. K1s 5B4 Canada) This one comes form the anarchist angle incorporating several reprints of articles on vegan society, animal rights, class anarchism, NYC scene report, reviews and their own commentary on scams for money, getting dole, 3rd world dept, direct action adn PC ness. (coming out of the remains of what was once Crossbread)

Micro Terra #6 (POB 26331/ SM KS 66225-6331) This one is pretty together, w/ intv. w/ Alice Donut, Grog of Mutant Renegade 'zine, Strage Damage. Plus reviews, poetry, letters and some commentary writing.

Orangutan Balls #5 (SASE to OB Prod 34 Benton B/ SI NY 10306) Strange name. There's a lot of paper wasted w/ these one sided copies and I'm afraid none of it holds my interest. Basicly we've got presidents of a whole load of countries in relationship to the '92 campaign. Some collage "art", comics and misc. tid-bit writings.

The Shadow #24 ($1 to POB 20298/ NY NY 10009) While it tends to be a bit slanted, this is still a good monthly source of info on the politics and happenings of the LES of NYC. I picked up this one to read about the LA riots and aftermath of Rodney King's Verdict as well as the May day activities of this year, and the annual pot parade. Also events and news. Read It! ($2ppd to DAVE Box 8 82 Colston St./ Bristol/ avon UK) This is a good English zine - Intvs here w/ Terminus, Zygot, Benjamin Zephaniah, plus a bunch of reviews, letters and more goodies. I like this one though, there is a good attitude to it.

Var Tufa ($2 POB 657/ Penngrove CA 94951) I really love the name, and this is really neat looking, however it is so overwealming for me that I can't focus on reading anything. This is all collages w/ small text, some of which is really weird, and bordering on Carcass record covers. I suppose if I lived in a field and had nothing else to do, or focus on this would be a lovely treat. But right now it is a visual bombardment. I gotta say, the 2 issue so this I have are some of the more incredible things I've received, but it's gonna take awhile to digest.

Shadow Lies by David McCord. This is a novel written of the underworld.. of cult magic, and terrorist groups. This is the story of one SF man who gets himself involved a little to deeply into a lot of really weird shit. He's got to decide who he can trust, and basicly gets strung along by lies from all sides in a plot of brainwashing and power. It's really kinda cool to see these "underground" authors publishing books of an "underground world", which is somewhat believable and only a step away for a lot of us. See ad for ordering info.

Linea Diritta #3/4. Here's a big slick one from Zagreb. The best hing about this is all the photos. There seems to be a collection of lots of old US hardcore bands - SNFU, Dag Nasty, Doggy Style, Bad Brains, Youth of Today, Jerrry's Kids etc. The photos are good. There's also a bunch of intv. w/ their own bands, all written in another language.

Revelations Awareness (POB 115/ Olympia WA 98507) This is a strange newsletter - called "The new age cosmic newsletter". Not quite sure how I came ahold of this, but it's a bit interesting. Write them for more info.

Trading Post #3 ($1 or stamps to Chris Caggiano 1737 Grove St. #1/ Ridgewood NY 11385) If you have the patience to weed through all these and you're into tape trading, then here is a huge source list of international tape traders with their lists.

Diderot (POB 15/ 6027 Innsbruck/ 0512-562066/ Austria) In German. A zine/ brochure. contributions designed by various bands adn Austria scene info (Robin)

Brady Bunch Behemoth by Ben Weasel ($2.50 to No Budget Prod. POB 62/ Prospect Heights IL 60070) Screeching Weasel tour diary. Need I say more? (Robin)

Northeast Philadelphia white-trash punk despised equally by friends and enemies. Alienated all my really good friends in drunken rages. want some long distance pals so it will be geographically impossible to piss you off in one of my Saturday Night drinking sprees. I dig Black Sabbath and varying female hairstyles. If you're female and vary your hair style often, send before and after photos. If you're male, jsut write. Antoine Domfino/ 3217 Longshore/ Phila PA 19149

I wasn't really thinking anything. I was thinking about jacking off. I was trying to phrase it cool though. I hate when Henry Rollins plays with Balck Flag. I like the other guy. Every skate video has Black Flag in it. I'm thinking to hard. This is enough. Jamie G 3226 Standwood St./ Philadelphia PA 19136

Atheus vegan startin' in godless spiritualism, martial arts, wish to keep contact with eco-warriors, animal liberators, rawfodders, and vegan people from anywhere. RECORD REVIEWS

Paxton Quiggley 7" ep

I'd heard a lot of good stuff about em, but now I just got to experience 'em, live at ABC and I got this ep, which is punk as fuck! It's really great to discover a really cool band! They've got the dual M/F vocals, she's got a great voice, that she throws up and it even reminds me a bit of Honey Bane or Crass, which contrasts to his really deep vocals. Jusy really cool noisy punk tunes. Check em out ($3ppd to POB 2501/ Berkely CA 94704)

Demise "The Essence of Shit" 7"

I just had the pleasure of seeing this bunch also at ABC. They're doing really cool hardcore, w/ intensity and power and intelligence, which seems to be a bit of a dying breed these days. It's always reassuring to know about cool bands, such as these guys from Wisconsin. ($3ppd to 2401 W. Layton Ave. Milwaukee WI 53221)

Jack Acid "Destroy the Boat" 7"

Really awesome punk rock w/ a very upbeat gallopy happy style appropriately from California, with dual M/F vocals. I like em quite a bit and to tell ya the truth, I'm surprised they're not more popular! (Lookout Rec. POB 11374/ Berkely CA 94701)

Excrement of War/ Discharge split 7"

Discharge is Swedens modern day Discharge. It's so Discharge it's kinda funny, and I suppose a description is therefore unnecessary. Excrement of War rocks equally as hard in the Discharge style w/ a bit more grind to them. Together, a cool mix and really excellent record! (Finn Rec. Jari Juha/ V. storg 11a/ 63342 Eskulstunay Sweden)

Hole "Retard Girl" 7"

This band seems to be all the rage these days (how much of that has to do w/ Nirvana?). Anyway, I think they're good and the first side appeals to me, but they sound just like L7, noisy grunge rock, w/ female vocals. (doesn't come w/ lyrics or anything.) (Sympathy 4901 Virginia Ave./ Long Beach CA 90805)

Planet Ed 7"

Boring. Midtempo punk rock with nothing lyrics. Cool drum sound, but nothing else makes this interesting while it's playing or memorable after it's over. (Mike) ($3.50 to Dave Graeter 1031 Joffre Pl/ Dayton OH 45430)

The Oxymorons 7"

Toetapping speedy power pop kinda thing. Lots of backing vocal harmonies, guitar leads and so forth. Doesn't have much originality and no real spark to make it exciting. Loses major points for acoustic Pirce cover that is even wimpier than the original. Why do so many of these bands sound exactly the same? (Mike) (POB 3445/ Dayton OH 45401)

Decadence Within "Pay-Off time" 7"

Another English band that has nothing better to do than imitate already mediocre American emo bands. Anyway, the music is the malange of post SEHC rock stylings, w/ little guitar changes and the standard "chugging guitar riff/ funk mosh part" song structure. Vocals are really sung, w/ NYHC shouted choruses. Generic lyrics about regret and war. The strangest thing about this record is that the band looks really excited in their sleeve photos, but the music is so constrained and lacking imagine why they would be. Average. (Mike) (D.W. "Eastleg" Homend Crescent, Ledbury, Herefordshire, England HR 81AQ)

Unherd / Strait Up split 7"

Unherd side: Muffled production, nice chuggy mid-tempo emo stuff. Still enough rough edges to make this a little bit intersting. Needs more energy to cut it, maybe live. Strait Up side: Hardcore with a real tinny recording, cool screaming vocals and general energy level make this worth hearing, even though the lyrics are kinda average. One intolerable funk style song, cool graphics. Worthwhile. (Mike) (313 South Shields Rd./ Columbia SC 29223)

Engage 7"

Oh, god does this suck. Amazingly pretentious political emo/ rock. The music is tedious, mushemometalcore retro rock, the lyrics are stupid, new age schmaltz that's so self-consciously "sensitive" that I just wish for punk rock that pisses people off. The vocals go from 60's folk crooning to emo crooning. Six minute songs! Humorless pretension smotherers all their good intentions. (Mike) (POB 4842 Santa Rosa CA 95402)

The Worst "No Comfort In Faith" 7"

This is another one of the few bands coming around today that I'm really into. I was afraid they had broken up, but now they're back with an excellent record of metal edged, chuggy guitar hardcore punk that is mighty fine! 3 new songs of really catchy upbeat bounce around groovy punk/ HaCdoore. This is so good, I keep playing it over and over again. Can't wait to see them again! ($4ppd to Stinky Twinkie comm POB 1271/ New Haven CT 06505)

In Anger "Reality Blind" 7"

Neil is really putting out some good records these days and this one is no exception. From Scotland, this is a cool political chuggy sounding punk that is very "British Punk". The pogo beat is there (do do do do) w/ angry, "in your face" vocals that keep the whole thing moving along upbeat and catchy! This one is growing on me, as I write... ($3 ppd to Tribal war POB 20012/ Temp. So. St. NY NY)

Dekadent Pull together a moderate paced HC punk. A bit catchy, the vocals have a distinct sound, but I can't pinpoint it more than foreign HC. Overall the music is average and the message and ideas are great. (POB 426/ 8026 Surich Switzerland)

Vicious Beatniks 7"

Da da na - na na na beat here. This throws me for a description. Semipsychadelic guitar which is really catchy and kinda groovy but doesn't do to much for me. (Winged Disk Rec. POB 236/ Nesconset NY 11767)

There's a Dyke in The Pit 7" comp

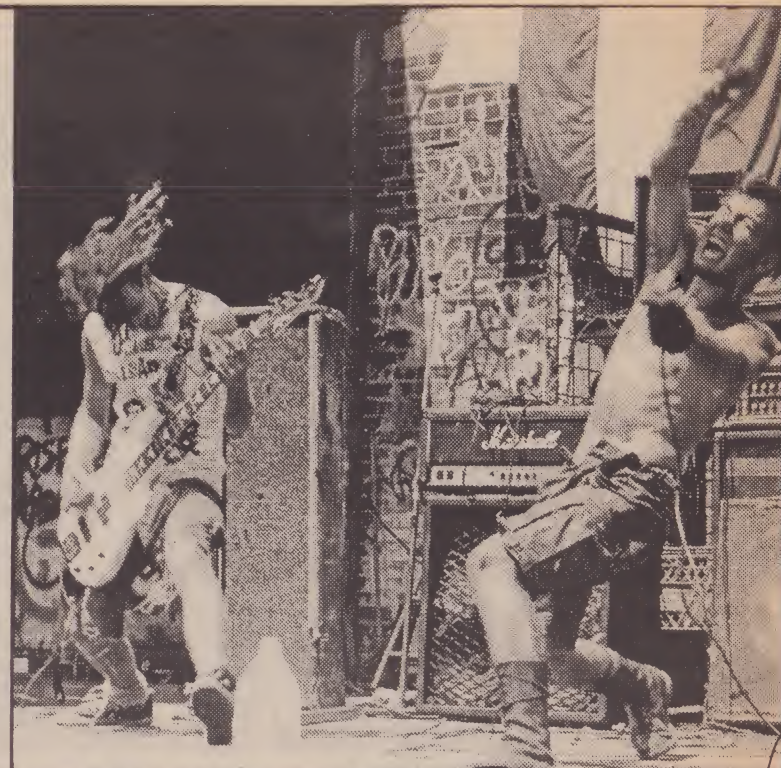

My first response was Ugh, cause I'm getting bored of all the queer hype, but this is really cool- much more of push for women, with all female bands (which is always great to see) and for those who care, they're not necessarily about being gay. Bikini Kill is my favorite and they live up to the raves I've heard. Reminds me a lot of Frightwig - w/ the grunge and general "fuck off I'm not taking any shit" attitude. Tribe 8 gets cathcy with each listen, singing about manipulating your girlfriend. Lucy Stoners have a weird eerie tweezy sound, very slow and calm. 7 Year Bitch sounds tuff and semi- bikerish one their intense parts, with a song called "Dead Men Dont Rape". All in all these are not the most amazing bands, but as a supporter of women bands this is cool to see and pretty good. ($3ppd to Out punk POB 17051/ SF CA 94117)

Walk Across America For Mother Earth 7" comp.

This is a cool benefit for "For Mother Earth", who organized the Walk Across America (now in progress). six bands on here : Hiatus doing the grind/ crust doom styled thing. Indian Dream have a female vocal doing a rather melodic but mid paced cathcy song I like Teenage Kicks do a quick crazy cover of the Undertones "Teenage Kicks". Political Asylum slows everything down to the point where I want to move along to the next song. Mushroom Attack pick up w/ a dirty punk sound of fast and cathcy upbeat peacepunk. Silent Water are super slow folk, with a song about unnecessary war through history. This is a good sampler of some cool and aware bands, all for a good cause. ($5ppd to Bonds of Friendship / William Linnigstraat 25/ 2060 Antwerpen / Belgium)

Post Mortem "Seasoned NOSalt....."

Slow... painful screams overtop of slow semi-metal w/ a slight bit of funk bass. There's a song here called Anal Drip. well no, this isn't really my thing, but at least it doesn't sound like all the other grind/ death/ metal bands that have caught on these days.

2.5 Children Inc. at the Crucial Barbeque 7/5/92

NOFX "The Longest Line" Ip

This seems to be better than the last release. It's cool that they're still around doing their thing and even played ABC not to long ago. They're definatly a band to see live, as they jump around like maniacs. They're got a California sound, really fast and upbeat gallopy tunes w/ rather melocid semi-emo vocals. (Fat Records POB 460144/ SF CA 9414)

The Master of Noise comp Ip

Getting this on the right speed is a start, if you can even tell. This is a cool label, but I find this shit unlistenable!! Agathocles, Anal Cunt, & Meat Shits make up the grind side - fast, noisy mess. Then 7 Minutes of Nausea & End of Silence on the noise side, and yep, it's noise. I hate it!! (SOA Rec. Paolo Petralia/ V. le Beethoven 63/ 00144/ Rome Italy)

Extreme Noise Terror "Phonophobia" 12" ep

This is my favorite ENT to date, with all the spee and usual insanity - but more on the punk side and less of the noisy grind stuff. This is tight as hell, punk and fuck and really excellent! Good luck finding it in the states though! (Vinyl/ Japan)

Charred Remains "Man is the Bastard" Ip

This could be competing with the Melvins for heaviness.. but I'm not sure how I feel about this. Really slow... and heavy w/ gruff screaming vocals. Comes with a summation of the songs, rather than actual lyrics. Interesting. I'm not sure that the slow power ever gets anywhere, which leaves it a bit dull. ($6 to Vermiform POB 1145/ Cooper Stn. NY NY 10276)

Paxton Quigley at ABC NO RIO 6/27/92

Helmut "In the Meantime" 7"

Really heavy punchy rocky sound that has become ultra popular lately. One side is good, but the 2nd instrumental is really pretty weak. I like Helmut, but I think they're starting to get a bit overated. (Am Rep. 2541 Nicollet Ave./ S. Milw MN 55404)

Don Don "Commercialism" 7"

Japanese hardcore at it's finest. I'm not a big fan of JHC, but this is a good band, one for which I can see where US bands would derive a JHC influence. This leans towards the grindy/grungy size w/ the urahloagh type vocals. I just keep playing it over and over....

Aus Rotten "We are Denied.. They Deny it" demo tape.
Wow! splendidly moist this one! Hardcore punk played really well with some great radio cuts put in also. Get this one - it's a must - trust me I'm a doctor! (Keith SST). This one fortantly stands on it's own, really good punk - definatly a band to keep and eye and ear open for!! This is one I can keep playing over and over and it's so nice to find a band like that! Check em out! (Chris) (c/o Eric Good/ POB 71287/ Pittsburgh PA 15213)

The Worst "No Comfort In Faith" 7"

This is another one of the few bands coming aroundn today that I'm really into. I was afraid they had broken up, but now they're back with an excellent record of metal edged, chuggy guitar hardcore punk that is mighty fine! 3 new songs of really catchy upbeat bounce around groovy punk/ HaCdcore. This is so good, I keep playing it over and over again. Can't wait to see them again! ($4ppd to Stinky Twinkie comm POB 1271/ New Haven CT 06505)

In Anger "Reality Blind" 7"

Neil is really putting out some good records these days and this one is no exception. From Scotland, this is a cool political chuggy sounding punk that is very "British Punk". The pogo beat is there (do do do do) w/ angry, "in your face" vocals that keep the whole thing moving along upbeat and catchy! This one is growing on me, as I write.. ($3 ppd to Tribal war/ POB 20012/ Tomp. Sq. Stn./ NY NY 10009)

Mind Over Matter 7"

Mosh it up Hardcore New York Style. This is the sort of hardcore with the funk bass and power that make those muscle arms flail around in the pit. Keeps a bit mid tempo w/ chorusey vocals. Though I don't really get into this style, these guys are pretty good (Wreckage Rec. 451 W. Broadway 2N/ NY NY 10012)

Misery/ Hellspawn "Poison Gas" ep

Misery have a great sound, I like, cause they're so deep and heavy and bassey! I love the super bass sound and the vocals on this are better than the LP which makes this quite good! Hellspawn make a pretty crusty punk debut with pure thrash to upbeat semi-pogoey beat. It's so punk, it even runs out in the middle of a song. (Shit for Brains POB 3879/ MPLS MN 55403)

Blanks "77 "Unite & Pogo!!" ep

The name kinda says it all - a '77 punk revival of pure pogoing punk. Although it's not the most original style, they're really good doing their thing and this popy upbeat stuff seems impossible (to me) not to get ya groovin' a bit. The cover comes w/ a fold out poster collage of tons of photos of the punks. ($4 US/ $5 outside/ to 1303 Myrtle St./ Hillside NJ 07205)

No Win Situation "Rat Bastard" 7"

Kind of goofy but semi-serious mid tempoed hardcore. My favorite song is called "trimmer" it's about trimming a hedge and having it die. While this is really pretty good w/ a somewhat friendly sound, I'm not sure that there is anthing super memorabile that makes it stand out.

We still Can't Help it If We're From Florida 7" comp

hype. This is my favorite and they live up to the raves I've heard. Reminds me a lot of Frightwig - w/ the grunge and general "fuck off I'm not taking any shit" attitude. Tribe 8 gets cathcy with each listen, singing about manipulating your girlfriend. Lucy Stoners have a weird eerie tweekey sound, very slow and calm. 7 Year Bitch sounds tuff and semi- bikerish one their intense parts, with a soung called "Dead Men Dont Rape". All in all these are not the most amazing bands, but as a supporter of women bands this is cool to see and pretty good. ($3ppd to Out punk POB 17051/ SF CA 94117)

Walk Across America For Mother Earth 7" comp.

This is a cool benefit to "For Mother Earth", who organized the Walk Across America (now in progress). six bands on here : Hiatus doing the grind/ crust doom styled thing. Indian Dream have a female vocal doing a rather melodic but mid paced cathcy song I like Teenage Kicks do a quick crazy cover of the Undertones 'Teenage Kicks'. Political Asylum slows everything down to the point where I want to move along to the next song. Mushroom Attack pick up w/ a dirty punk sound of fast and cathcy upbeat peacepunk. Silent Water are super slow folk, with a song about unnecessary war through history. This is a good sampler of some cool and aware bands, all for a good cause. ($5ppd to Bonds of Friendship / William Linnigstraat 25/ 2060 Antwerpen / Belgium)

Post Mortem "Seasoned NOSalt....."

Slow... painful screams overtop of slow semi-metal w/ a slight bit of funk bass. There's a song here called Anal Drip. well no, this isn't really my thing, but atleast it doesn't sound like all the other grind/ death / metal bands that have caught on these days.

2000 Dirty Squatters "Squat The Lot" Ip

I really like this record... They've got a unique sound and approach along the lines of mid-paced punk w/ clear semi-off beat vocals, w/ a heavy Welsh accent. The final sound is original and therefore stands out - and for me, it's one of those that gets inside me and makes me really into it, listen after listen! (Scrap Records, see ad.)

Hell No "Skin Job" Ip

A bit of a peaceful melody w/ lots of intricate instrument sounds, all made intense by the unusual accent on vocals and punch they have. A bit of tweekeyness to this though w/ loads of crazy disharmonic guitar, adding a bit of eerieness which is balanced by the outburst of intensity and punchines. This one is not for me though. ($6 to Wardance 216 E. 6th st./ NY NY 10003)

Bugout Society "Yo Baby "Sup" Ip

I ran down to Recon to read and listen to this one, cause of the "Don't Piss on my Barbeque" song about ABC and AI, which is think is hilarious! So here are a bunch of groovin' fun, upbeat, even pogoey hardcore tunes about hangin out & having fun in New Yawk. I think it is fun, and really quite likeable!! ($6 Drunken Shalin Rec. POB 1014/ Yonkers NY 10704-1014)

2.5 Children Inc. at the Crucial Barbeque 7/5/92

NOFX "The Longest Line" Ip

This seems to be better than the last release. It's cool that they're still around doing their thing and even played ABC not to long ago. They're definatly a band to see live, as they jump around like maniacs. They're got a California sound, really fast and upbeat gallopy tunes w/ rather melocid semi-emo vocals. (Fat Records POB 460144/ SF CA 9414)

The Master of Noise comp Ip

Getting this on the right speed is a start, if you can even tell. This is a cool label, but I find this shit unlistenable!! Agathocles, Anal Cunt, & Meat Shits make up the grind side - fast, noisy mess. Then 7minuts of Nausea & End of Silence on the noise side, and yep, it's noise. I hate it!! (SOA Rec. Paolo Petralia/ V. le Beethoven 63/ 00144/ Rome Italy)

Extreme Noise Terror "Phonophobia" 12" ep

This is my favorite ENT to date, with all the spee and usual insanity - but more on the punk side and less of the noisy grind stuff. This is tight as hell, punk and fuck and really excellent! Good luck finding it in the states though! (Vinyl Japan)

Charred Remains "Man is the Bastard" Ip

This could be competing with the Melvins for heaviness.. but I'm not sure how I feel about this. Really slow... and heavy w/ gruff screaming vocals. Comes with a summation of the songs, rather than actual lyrics. Interesting. I'm not sure that the slow power ever gets anywhere, which leaves it a bit dull. ($6 to Vermiform POB 1145/ Cooper Stn. NY NY 10276)

IBK Demo '91/92

19 songs from 18 bands/ projects from the Innsbruck (IBK) area in Austria. Some good, some not so good. Too varied in styles. Overall worth a listen (Buro Diderot, Kultur & Kommunikation/ Postfach 15 A-6027 Innsbruck)

Toxic Waste On Yer Plate (An Intl. Comp.)

Yet another great comp. from Greenearth Tapes. Side A stands out. Includes Neuroleprosy (Poland), Sairrat Mieleit (Finland), Screaming Holocaust (England), Huaspungo, Social Outcast and unreleased Misery w/ AI Long (Sin, Nausea) on vocals. 10 bands, 28 trax! Recommended. Check out the other Greenearth stuff Like: Apostates/ Jesus Chrust split, Nausea/ Rats Got the Rabies split and there's still even mroe great International comps! Collect them all! Trade 'em with your friends! (Greenearth tapes c/o Pedro Seabra 96B Frederick St./ Carteret NJ 07008)

Poor Excuse "The Missing Link"

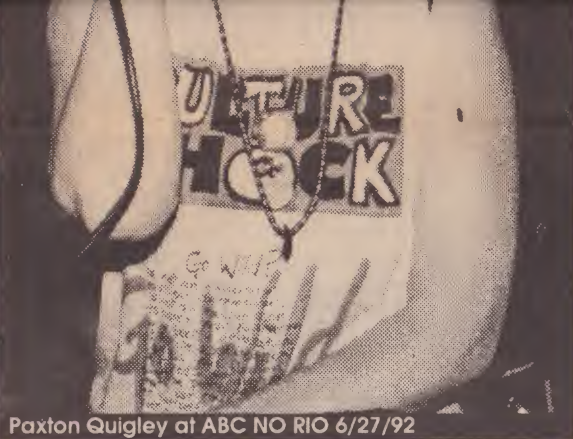

High energy posi-core. Not my cup of Java, might be yours. Oh yeh, the singer actually sings. (Poor excuse PO Box 212/ Blooming Grove, NY 10914)

Grudgefuck

The name says it all. Ear-blistering industrial noise with occasional rythms. Oh yeh, trade only!! (Grudgefuck PO Box 13180/ Jersey City NJ 07303)

Manic Depression "It's A Wonder We Aren't All Screaming Like Mad In Our Sleep" Met these guys at the Popsicle Jubilee in North Carolina. Social/ political punk from Buffalo, NY. Kinda sounds like early

Paxton Quigley at ABC NO RIO 6/27/92

Helmut "In the Meantime" 7"

Really heavy punchy rocky sound that has become ultra popular lately. One side is good, but the 2nd instrumental is really pretty weak. I like Helmut, but I think they're starting to get a bit overrated. (Am Rep. 2541 Nicollet Ave./ S. Minn MN 55404)

Don Don "Commercialism" 7"

Japanese hardcore at it's finest. I'm not a big fan of JHC, but this is a good band, one for which I can see where US bands would derive a JHC influence. This leans towards the grindy/grungy size w/ the urahloagh type vocals. I just keep playing it over and over....

Aus Rotten "We are Denied.. They Deny it" demo tape. Wow! splendidly moist this one! Hardcore punk played really well with some great radio cuts put in also. Get this one - it's a must - trust me I'm a doctor! (Keith SST). This one fortuantly stands on it's own, really good punk - definatly a band to keep an eye and ear open for!! This is one I can keep playing over and over and it's so nice to find a band like that! Check em out! (Chris) (c/o Eric Good/ POB 71287/ Pittsburgh PA 15213)

2.5 Children Inc. "Good Morning America" live tape It's a pity this isn't a video, because it's really good to listen to, but you've got to see them live - fucking crazy! It's really good to see a band that is politically aware rather than correct and still have the best sense of humor I've come across in years. I don't want to compare them to to other bands, lets just say you don't have to go to the Paradise Bar in NY to get off on this one. (Keith SST) (This live tape has 2 different shows, one from Philly and one from Pittsburgh. 90 min in all!) (c/o 140 S. Wawaset Rd. W. Chester PA 19382)

Dag Nasty "Four on the Floor"

This album has a few catchy tunes reminiscent of old Dag Nasty, but the lyrics are so corny it doesn't come close. One song in particular, "Roger", sounds like a group of people who got drunk, made up some words and had a sing a long. (AT) (Epitaph Records)

Mousetrap 7"

Tolerable midtempo rock/core stuff like Squirrel Bait on downers or something. The A side is ruined by whiny vocals, the flip is more exciting. Vague lyrics. Could be an intersting band if they deranged themselves a bit more, but right not it jus t kinda sits there. (Mike) (One Hr. Rec. 1215 Harney/ Omaha NE 68102)

Haven CT 06505)

In Anger "Reality Blind" 7"

We still Can't Help it If We're From Florida 7" comp

This has a load (8) Florida bands that bring a hell of a lot of variety. EBS has a dirty noisey sound, No Fraud sounds like an early 80's DC's hardcore and I was starting to feel like this was a early 80's sampler till Slap of Reality came along w/ this emo melodic long tune which breaks up the record. Backwash pick things up again, up beat tune w/ female vocals. Maggot Sandwich - I remember this name. Really short noisey garage sound. Roach Motel bring back an old song from '81 from the now New York George Tabb, Chicken Shit are a noisey Germs style punk and Milk & Cookies stick to just a 10 sec blast. Whew, made it through this one. Well there is much variety here, which makes for a cool release. This is part 2 of one that came out 10 years ago doing the same thing. Comes with a big poster/ lyric sheet. ($3ppd to Burito Rec.3421 SE Micanopy ter./ Stuart FL 34997)

Earth Citizens / Dekadent split 7"

E.C. have improved and have a noisey collection of tunes that defy classification. Some thrash and some more meloed out Swiss hardcore. They sing in English but have multi language translations and a big booklet and poster/ packaging which kind of surpasses the recording. What they're saying and the info and contacts here is great!

cool and aware bands, all for a good cause. ($5ppd to Bonds of Friendship / William Linnigstraat 25/ 2060 Antwerpen / Belgium)

Blatherskite "Abstract"

One of the best tapes I heard in awhile. As Mr. Potato head sayz "Tired of paying $12 for Earache bands, here's a demo for $5ppd that can blow the candle out on any of them. Heavy guitars minus those annoying fucking leads. Sandpaper vocals, no high pitched screaming here. Mindrot listeners beware! Nuff said!!! (C/O Andrew Francis 8142 Forsythiacl INDLPS IN 46219)

Anok & Peace

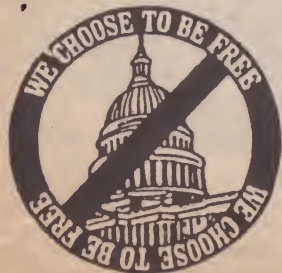

3332 PEACHTREE * LIMA, OH 45805 * U.S.A.

Anok & Peace is an organization that produces shirts, patches, stickers, & music to help spread the ideas of various bands, to help destroy corporate punk shops and other punk profiteers, to support the independent underground d.i.y. punk movement, and to make hard-to-find things available at a not-for-profit price. The Anok & Peace Collective is a network of individuals who help release punk music via small uniform donations. In return, each person receives recognition on the sleeve, and copies of the release. If you are interested, be sure to write and say so. The shirts are white 100% cotton and are available in sizes large and extra-large. Designs can be printed in either black or red on the front and/or the back. The patches are either white denim with black printing or black denim with white printing; it all depends on the design itself. Back patches are shirt designs printed on patch material. The stickers are white self-adhesive plastic-coated paper with black printing. The S.I. One 7" is a compilation record featuring Media Children, Holocaust, Social Insecurity, and Unauthorized. The sleeve folds out to a huge 23x29" poster with lyrics, graphics, and information. The Dead Silence "Zeitgeist - Live and Otherwise" CrO₂ cassette is a posthumous release of 18 tracks of rare studio recordings and previously unreleased live material. Sleeve folds out to an 11x17" poster. This was the first release by the Collective. For more information on these music releases, see the reviews. Make sure you add postage to your order. See the postage chart for your proper postage amount. For payment, either send well-concealed cash or a money order made out to Todd Hassebrock (U.S. funds only).
